LEGAL FRAMEWORK

Under section 36 of the 1944 Education Act, parents or carers of children of compulsory school age are required to ensure that their child receives full time education, whether by regular attendance at school or otherwise and this is supported by the 2003 Anti-Social Behaviour Act (Part III) amendment to 'parenting orders', which were introduced by the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 specifying steps parents must take to control their children.

Parents or carers commit an offence if a child fails to attend school regularly and those absences are classed as unauthorised. Depending on the circumstances such cases may result in prosecution under section 444 (1) or section 444 (1A) of the Education Act 1996

A Fixed Penalty Notice is an alternative to prosecution, which does not require an appearance in Court unless the fine is unpaid after 28 days. Penalty Notices are issued by the Local Authority with a fine of £120 per child/per parent/guardian to be paid within 28 days of being issued, or £60 if paid within 21 days. (Full details of Fixed Penalty Notices are available, on request, in school and on the school website)

It is the responsibility of the local authority to ensure that all pupils between the ages of 5 and 16 receive an education.

This Policy and Procedures document is informed by DfES circular 11/91 "The Education (School Attendance Records) Regulations 1991" and "School Attendance – Policy and Practise – Categorisation of Absence" DfES 1994 – Paragraph 21, reminds us that:

"Only the school, within the context of the law, can approve absence, not parents. The fact that a parent has offered a note or other notification (telephone call, Student Planner) in relation to a particular absence does not, of itself, oblige the school to accept it".
